Section M

SECTION M - EVALUATION FACTORS FOR AWARD

EVALUATION CRITERIA

The Government will make award to the responsible offeror whose offer conforms to the solicitation requirements and represents the best value to the Government, technical quality and cost or price and other price-related factors considered. For this solicitation, the combined weight of technical factors is more important than cost or price and other price-related factors.

The technical evaluation factors and sub factors listed below are in descending order of importance:

1. TECHNICAL APPROACH

- A. Demonstration of aircraft and pilot on-line availability
- B. Aircraft suitability and reliability
- C. Quality of solutions to potential problems

2. PAST PERFORMANCE

Past performance in meeting reporting dates and application schedules. Provide a list of references and a narrative describing experience in meeting reporting dates and compliance with application schedules on aerial dispersal or similar projects. Additionally, the offeror shall provide the name, address, and telephone number of the point of contact for each reference identified.

3. OFFEROR'S FACILITIES

Shop facility and skilled personnel to make modifications and to install government-furnished special-purpose equipment (referenced GFE) in aircraft. Submit information on shop facility modifications capability and prior experience of each employee responsible for installing government-furnished equipment.

4. FINANCIAL RESOURCES

Demonstration of adequate financial resources and stability to support cost of operation.

5. PERSONNEL

Demonstrated ability to employ sufficient number of qualified operational and support staff to successfully and consistently meet the challenges inherent to performing service contracts.
